

Wake 'N' Shake™ Clock

Alarm Clock with variable volume and tone, vibrator and flash

The Oricom jumbo alarm clock and shaker is ideal for people with a hearing impairment or for those who don't want to wake their partner in the morning.

It can be used as a stand-alone alarm clock and shaker or it can be connected to a phone. Once connected to a phone it provides a loud ringer, flashing strobe light and vibrating shaker, making it easier to hear and see that you have an incoming call or an alarm alert. It also has an oversized display for easy reading.

FEATURES

- Large easy to read display.
- Large vibrating alert pad.
- Extra bright flashing strobe.
- Select vibrate/alarm/strobe.
- Extra loud adjustable volume (+95dB max).
- Tone control for alarm.
- Connects to any phone and detects ring.
- Simple to connect.
